2007 MIGRATORY BIRD SUBSISTENCE HARVEST PROPOSALS

The annual period to submit proposals to change migratory bird subsistence harvest regulations for the 2007 April-August season opens on November 1 and extends through December 15, 2005. Forms and instructions are available on the web at <http://alaska.fws.gov/ambcc/regulations.htm> or by calling the toll-free number at 1-877-229-2344.

Petitions will also be accepted during this open period to request a change in “included/excluded” community status for the 2007 harvest season. A detailed description of the process for community petitioning is available from our office.

Harvest regulations already proposed for the 2006 migratory bird subsistence season were published in the Federal Register on September 22, 2005. These draft 2006 regulations can be downloaded from the web at <http://alaska.fws.gov/ambcc/regulations.htm>. The 60-day public comment period ends on November 21, 2005.

All proposals and petitions received to change 2007 harvest regulations will be reviewed and acted on by the Alaska Migratory Bird Co-Management Council at their May 2006 meeting.
